

Numerous exemptions have been granted allowing facsimiles or other means to temporarily substitute for pilot certificates or airman medical certificates, and aircraft airworthiness or registration certificates, when the originals have been lost or misplaced. Means to allow this process should be incorporated in FAR 135 to eliminate the need for repetitive issuance and renewal of these exemptions.